

50 Travel Tips From Local Greater Than Tourist United States

Traveling to the United States can be an exciting experience filled with endless possibilities. From the vibrant cityscapes to the breathtaking natural landscapes, the country offers something for every type of traveler. To help you make the most out of your trip, we have compiled 50 travel tips directly from locals who know the hidden gems and best-kept secrets. Break away from the typical tourist spots and discover the United States like a true insider:

1. Embrace the Natural Beauty

Visiting national parks like Yosemite, Yellowstone, and the Grand Canyon is a must-do when traveling to the United States. Make sure to explore the vast landscapes and immerse yourself in the country's natural beauty.

2. Try Local Cuisine

The United States is known for its diverse food scene. Don't miss the opportunity to try regional specialties such as lobster in Maine, deep-dish pizza in Chicago, or barbecue in Texas. Venture beyond the typical chain restaurants and explore local gems.

Are you excited about planning your next trip?

Do you want to try something new?

Would you like some guidance from a local?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, then this Greater Than a Tourist book is for you.

Greater Than a Tourist- Florida USA by Michelle Turner offers the native's inside scoop on the state. Most travel books tell you how to travel like a tourist. Although there is nothing wrong with that, as part of the Greater Than a Tourist series, this book will give you travel tips from someone who has lived at your next travel destination.

In these pages, you will discover advice that will help you throughout your stay. This book will not tell you exact addresses or store hours but instead will give you excitement and knowledge from a local that you may not find in other smaller print travel books.

Travel like a local. Slow down, stay in one place, and get to know the people and the culture. By the time you finish this book, you will be eager and prepared to travel to your next destination.
