

An Angus And Tyler Meet Cute The Lovehim: A Tale of Serendipitous Love

Once upon a time, in a small picturesque town, two souls destined to be together had their paths unknowingly cross. Angus, a charismatic and adventurous young man, and Tyler, a free-spirited artist, were both seeking something missing in their lives. Little did they know that a fateful encounter would change everything.

The sun was shining bright on a spring morning as Angus stepped into his favorite coffee shop, "The Lovehim." He had frequented this cozy little spot for years, drawn in not only by the delicious brew but also by the artistic ambiance it consistently exuded.

Angus settled into his regular corner booth, surrounded by walls adorned with vibrant paintings and sculptures. As he sipped his latte, he noticed a strikingly beautiful painting on the opposite wall. It depicted a breathtaking sunset over an endless field, beckoning him to explore beyond his comfort zone.

The painting was an instant magnet, capturing Angus' attention and stirring something deep within his soul. It was as if the artwork held a clue to his unresolved wanderlust. He couldn't help but wonder who the talented artist behind it might be.

Meanwhile, Tyler was walking down the street, her sketchbook in hand, capturing the simple beauty in everyday life. She had a unique ability to infuse her art with genuine emotions, touching the hearts of those who chanced upon her creations.

As Tyler strolled past "The Lovehim," she too noticed the painting that had captivated Angus. Intrigued by the emotions it evoked, she couldn't resist the urge to display her appreciation for the piece. She gently tore a page from her sketchbook and crafted a heartfelt note, praising the artist's talent.

With her note securely tucked in her pocket, Tyler confidently entered "The Lovehim." She approached the painting, admiring it from different angles, and placed her note alongside it, hoping the artist would stumble upon it.

Unbeknownst to Tyler, Angus had been watching her every move from his corner booth. Curiosity burned inside him, and he decided to seize the moment. He walked over to the painting and noticed the note. His heart raced as he read the heartfelt message.

Unable to contain his excitement, Angus glanced around the coffee shop, searching for someone who radiated the same artistic vibe he felt emanating from Tyler. His eyes locked with hers, and their souls instantly connected.

In that moment, it was as if time stood still. Angus approached Tyler, a wide smile on his face, and thanked her for her kind words. Their conversation flowed effortlessly, as if they had known each other for years. They discovered a shared passion for art, exploration, and a deep desire to lead a life filled with purpose and meaning.

Days turned into weeks, and weeks into months, as Angus and Tyler embarked on countless adventures, exploring the world together. They traveled to remote islands, climbed towering mountains, and experienced breathtaking sunsets, just like the one in the painting that started it all.

Their love blossomed, intertwining their lives in ways they had never imagined possible. Angus and Tyler became each other's biggest supporters, constantly fueling their passions and unlocking a creative force within them that had lain dormant for far too long.

As their story continued to unfold, the painting remained a symbol of their serendipitous love. It reminded them of the profound connection they had established that day, and the transformative power of unexpected encounters.

Angus and Tyler's love story serves as a reminder to always embrace the unknown, dare to seize the opportunities life presents, and follow the paths that tug at our hearts. Their love story is not just about two individuals; it is a testament to the power of destiny and the beauty that can arise from chance encounters.

So, dear reader, always keep your heart open, for you never know when your own Angus and Tyler meet cute, "The Lovehim," might unfold before your very eyes.

Angus Reid has always hoped for a roommate.

As the only openly gay student at Pinebrook Private, he's never had the kind of friendship everyone else in his year does, until Tyler shows up. Tyler is sweet, thoughtful, and absolutely adorkable—and better still, he couldn't care less that Angus is gay.

Unfortunately, falling for your straight roommate is never a good idea, and during a snowed-in weekend, Angus learns this lesson the hard way.

A YA contemporary short story, No Big Deal is the prequel to To Be Honest and will show you where it all began for Angus and Tyler.
