

Biking Lake Waikaremoana: A Captivating New Zealand Photo Journal

New Zealand is renowned for its breathtaking landscapes and vibrant array of outdoor adventures. One such adventure that will leave you spellbound is biking around Lake Waikaremoana. Located in the stunning Te Urewera National Park, Lake Waikaremoana offers not only stunning vistas but also a thrilling biking experience that will take you through ancient forests, cascading waterfalls, and serene lakeside trails.

Preparing for the Journey

Before embarking on the biking expedition, it is essential to plan and prepare accordingly. Ensure you have a sturdy mountain bike, well-suited for off-road trails and capable of handling the varied terrains encountered throughout the journey. Additionally, equip yourself with suitable safety gear, including a helmet, knee pads, and elbow pads.

Avid photographers and nature enthusiasts should make sure to bring a high-quality camera to capture the awe-inspiring beauty of the surroundings. From golden sunsets to misty morning views, these photos will forever preserve the memories of this extraordinary adventure.

Embarking on the Journey

The biking journey around Lake Waikaremoana starts at Onepoto Visitor Center, where you can collect a trail map and get vital information about the route. As you set off, you'll find yourself immersed in a world of natural wonders.

The trail takes you deep into the ancient forests that envelop the lake, providing a sense of untouched wilderness. The hauntingly beautiful view of native trees towering above you, forming a natural canopy, will transport you to another realm altogether. The scent of the forest mingled with the crisp mountain air creates an intoxicating combination that heightens your sense of adventure.

Exploring the Natural Beauty

As the trail winds its way around the lake, be prepared to witness stunning vistas at every turn. The crystal-clear waters of Lake Waikaremoana reflect the sky's hues, creating surreal and mesmerizing views. As you venture further, you'll encounter towering cliffs, cascading waterfalls, and charming streams that gracefully meander through the landscape.

One of the must-see features of the trail is the Aniwaniwa Falls. This 30-meter tall waterfall is a true spectacle of nature's might and beauty. The sight and sound of water thundering down the rocks will leave you in awe.

Encountering Wildlife

As you journey through the trail, keep your eyes peeled for the diverse wildlife that calls this region home. You may spot native bird species like tuis, bellbirds, or even the rare North Island brown kiwi during your expedition. Capture these magical encounters on camera for a memento of your experience.

Meeting Local Communities

The biking experience around Lake Waikaremoana also provides an opportunity to connect with the local Māori communities that have a deep cultural and spiritual connection to the land. Consider immersing yourself in their traditions and customs, as this will enrich your understanding of the region's significance.

By doing so, you'll gain a deeper appreciation for the natural wonders you encounter and develop a strong sense of respect for the land and its people.

Biking around Lake Waikaremoana is a magical adventure filled with awe-inspiring vistas, enchanting forests, and encounters with captivating wildlife.

Capture the essence of this experience through your lens and create memories that will last a lifetime.

Immerse yourself in the beauty of New Zealand's Te Urewera National Park and embark on a biking journey that will forever hold a special place in your heart. Witness the wonders of Lake Waikaremoana and create your own photo journal to share the magic with others.

Come join me for this 50-image photo journal as I cycle and hike across New Zealand. In this seventh volume I'll be cycling south along the coast from Gisborne up into the mountains to soak at the Morere Hot Springs. Next I'll be pedaling inland up to the legendary Lake Waikaremoana with its huge climbs, pouring rains, and 120-foot waterfalls. Finally, I'll be riding through Murupara to the Waikite Thermal Pools for New Years Eve. I hope you enjoy these images and travel thoughts as much as I did photographing them and living the adventure.
