Lizbeth reaches out and grabs Coll's wrist, yanking him into her chambers. "What are ye doing?" he cries, wrenching his arm free. "Saving you."

FREE Download on Kindle Unlimited!

Coll is a fool to attempt infiltrating the English castle. Is retrieving what was stolen from his clan worth the danger he's in now? When he first started this insane mission, he planned on restoring hope to his clan and giving them back their pride and dignity.

Now, it looks like all he's going to give them is another death count.

Unless this English lass means what she says. But why should she help him? It would be treason on her part. But Coll doesn't understand the motivation behind Lizbeth's actions. He doesn't understand her disdain for her own life. Nor can he foresee the emotional pull of this beautiful girl.

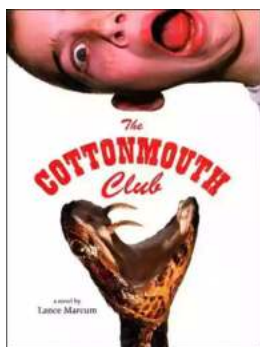

Only after he's fallen helplessly in love with her does he see the full impact of what they've decided to do.
