Squeaky is a magnificent cat with attitude and style.

He is a cross between Top Cat and Garfield and like TC he is very street wise, whilst although his Garfield side has a problem with 'Keepers' (humans) he dearly loves his own Keeper who is called Sarah.

He is also very loyal to his close knit group of friends who's differences will surprise, delight and amuse you. They, in turn are 100% loyal to Squeaky and as the tale unfolds you will discover the extent of this loyalty and friendship.

Due to his parting 'gift' to an old adversary - Granny Swartz - 'peeing' on her old armchair, he becomes trapped in a van and gets spirited away to begin his 6 day adventure to find his way back home to his friends and to his 'Sarah'.

Between getting hopelessly lost, getting chased and caught by 'The Two Ugly Pound Police', nearly losing his family jewels, being adopted by a young girl and her 'strange ' mother and meeting and befriending unexpected allies like 'Robo the Hobo, Barty and Clint (the gun slinging mut),his long journey culminates in his eventual and eventful return to his home.

Squeaky's escapades are amusing, sometimes tearful or loving and also scary at times but between all of the joys and heartaches of his enforced journey, his character shines through and he gains the love and respect from all of his new friends. Love and respect that he happily returns in heaps.

As he reiterates many times during his journey, 'Keepers' (humans) could learn a great deal from observing and chilling out like their pets and although at times he thinks we are a lost case, his friendship with several 'Keepers' along the way, makes him think that there is glimmer of hope for us after all.

A truly remarkable story and journey about a remarkable lovely and witty cat.

You will marvel at his determination and zeal for life and will end up loving him as much as his 'Keeper' Sarah does, because;

Squeaky is THE cat.
