Nelson Lakes National Park offers a variety of trails for hikers of all levels. Whether you're a seasoned pro or a beginner looking to explore the great outdoors, there's a trail for you. One of the most popular hikes in the park is the Travers-Sabine Circuit, a multi-day trek that takes you through breathtaking alpine scenery, past majestic mountains, and alongside picturesque lakes.

For those looking for a shorter, yet equally rewarding hike, the Lake Angelus Track is a must-visit. This 17-kilometer hike treats you to stunning views of Lake

Rotoroa and Lake Rotoiti, with plenty of opportunities to spot native birdlife along the way.

Encountering Wildlife

Nelson Lakes National Park is not only known for its breathtaking landscapes but also its abundant wildlife. As you wander through the park, you may come across native birds such as the endangered kaka and kea parrots, or spot a deer as it gracefully roams through the forest. Keep your camera ready, as these encounters with wildlife will be memories you'll want to capture forever.

Stunning Photography Opportunities

With its pristine lakes, towering mountains, and lush forests, Nelson Lakes National Park offers endless opportunities for stunning photography. As you hike through the park, you'll find yourself surrounded by postcard-worthy scenery at every turn.

Make sure to capture the early morning mist as it rises over the lake, the vibrant colors of the wildflowers in bloom, and the misty peaks of the mountains as they reflect on the calm waters. With such natural beauty on display, your photo journal will be filled with awe-inspiring shots that will transport you back to this magical place.

Come join me for this 50-image photo journal as I cycle and hike across New Zealand. In this 16th volume I will be cycling to Arnaud to go hiking in the Nelson Lakes National Park up to Angelus Hut. We will hike for two action-packed days along rocky lake shores, past 40-meter waterfalls, through mossy beech forests, and up above tree line on steep trails to an amazing hut next to twin alpine lakes nestled in a breathtaking valley. I hope you enjoy these images and travel thoughts as much as I did photographing them and living the adventure.
