

Our Life And Adventures In Africa

Africa, a continent known for its diversity, rich culture, and breathtaking landscapes, has been our home and playground for the past decade. Our life and adventures in this enchanting land have been nothing short of extraordinary. From crossing vast savannahs teeming with wildlife to delving into local traditions and embracing the warmth of its people, Africa has forever captured our hearts.

The lure of Africa is not one that can be easily ignored. With its untamed wilderness stretching as far as the eye can see, one cannot escape the pull of its majestic beauty. Every day presents an opportunity to witness nature's wonders up close. From the mighty elephants roaming freely in the Amboseli National Park to the ferocious lions prowling the Serengeti, the African wildlife never ceases to amaze.

Our journey has taken us to some of the most remote and breathtaking locations that Africa has to offer. We have trekked through the jungles of Uganda to encounter the awe-inspiring mountain gorillas in their natural habitat. The connection between these incredible creatures and us is indescribable, as if we were witnessing a glimpse into our shared ancestry.

The vibrant cultures and traditions of Africa have also left an indelible mark on our souls. From joining in traditional dances in the lively markets of Marrakech to immersing ourselves in the rhythmic beats of the Djembe drums, the hospitality and genuine warmth of the African people have made us feel like family wherever we go.

It is not just the well-known tourist destinations that have enchanted us; it is the hidden gems that truly capture the essence of Africa. The vastness of the Namib Desert, with its towering sand dunes and seemingly endless horizons, has a way of making one feel simultaneously insignificant and connected to the universe.

The contrast between Africa's breathtaking landscapes and the challenges its people face is stark. Poverty and inequality are prevalent in many regions, yet the resilience and strength of the African people continue to inspire us. It is through their daily struggles and triumphs that we have learned valuable lessons about the power of community and the importance of cherishing every moment.

Despite the many adventures and experiences we have had, Africa still holds countless surprises waiting to be discovered. Each journey into the unknown brings a sense of excitement and anticipation. It is in these moments that we truly feel alive, knowing that we are part of something greater than ourselves.

Our life and adventures in Africa have been a constant reminder of the beauty and wonders that this world has to offer. It is a place where nature's grandeur and human connection intertwine, creating unforgettable memories and shaping our lives in ways we could have never imagined.

So, come join us in this extraordinary journey, where Africa's majestic landscapes, vibrant cultures, and untamed wildlife await. Let us embark on an adventure of a lifetime, experiencing the true essence of Our Life And Adventures In Africa!

Africa, the huge dream of many. Have you ever had a dream of being involved in some great adventure in your life? Often when we are children we dream of doing great things and going to wonderful places, then for most as we mature those dreams fade. What if they didn't, what if you were able to follow those dreams? When I was about 12 years old I found an illustrated book about the search for Dr. Livingstone in my mother's things. It began a dream that took another 20 years to fulfill, but my wife and I eventually ended up in Kenya East Africa. we lived a life of travel into the bush and safari to game parks, but to all we did was evangelism by living beside the people. This book is a journal of our life and adventures while living there, come join us and begin your own dreams.
