Meister Eckhart (c. 1260 - 1327/8) is one of the great Christian mystics. In the language of the Christian tradition Eckhart expounds the eternal mysteries in a style that is fresh and original in the best sense. Through the vividness of his use of imagery (alluding to the mysteries of the spark of the soul, the Abyss, the desert, the birth of the Word in the heart, etc.) Eckhart paradoxically directs us to that which lies beyond image. The depth and universality of Eckhart's teaching has drawn seekers of truth Christian and non-Christian alike.
