The local bakery, Sweet Delights, owned by the beloved Mrs. Miller, is a symbol of the town's warm and inviting atmosphere. Its delectable pastries and scrumptious cakes have earned it a devoted following. But when a body is discovered in the back alley behind the bakery, the town is plunged into chaos, and Missy senses that this is just the beginning.

The Mystery Unveiled

As the investigation unfolds, Missy discovers that the victim was more than just a random passerby. In fact, the person lying lifeless behind Sweet Delights was entangled in a web of secrets that could shake the foundations of Sweetwater to its core. With her sharp wit and relentless determination, Missy delves deeper into the darkness, unraveling clues and questioning the town's inhabitants.

The plot thickens as Missy encounters a colorful cast of suspects, each with their own motives and secrets to hide. From the conniving mayor to the enigmatic baker's assistant, everyone seems to have something to hide. Uncovering the truth becomes a race against time as Missy races to save not only her own life but also the tightly knit community she holds dear.

Missy Dubois - An Irresistible Heroine

Missy Dubois, the brilliant and intuitive protagonist of this captivating mystery series, is a force to be reckoned with. Her relentless pursuit of justice combined with her sharp intellect makes her a forceful amateur detective. A Louisiana hatmaker blows the lid off a deadly real estate deal in this Southern mystery by the national bestselling author of Murder at Morningside.

Louisiana hat designer Missy DuBois has had a longstanding love affair with antebellum architecture. So when the Sweetwater mansion goes on the market for a fraction of what she'd expect, she's tempted to set up shop surrounded by alabaster columns and gleaming mahogany. The Southern connections only deepen when the real estate agent turns out to be Missy's old sorority sister Mellette Babineaux.

But when Missy drags her best friend Bo along to the mansion for a second look, they barely make it past the live oaks before they discover Mellette dead in a shed. Now, for the sake of her college friend, Missy starts investigating everyone from a superstitious Cajun caretaker to a Rolls Royce-driving billionaire—and finding that lots of closet space can mean lots of skeletons, too.
