When Holly lost her daughter-in-love she wanted to write a children's book for her granddaughter and oldest son. She noticed that many books were written about a mother and child's love. Feeling that something was missing for Everett, she set out to give her granddaughter something to relate to and learn from.

This is a book about a daddy teaching his daughter how to grieve, love, and pray. "Tell My Mommy Hi," shares the story of a father and daughter navigating the loss of a wife and mother.

Written for children who are learning how to live without someone they love, "Tell my mommy Hi" will teach parents and children what it means to love someone who is no longer with them and how to honor their memory. You will smile, cry but above all hope.

Told in a lovely poetic rhythm of a little girl learning how to pray, and asking Jesus to give a message to her momma who lives in heaven.

Holly is an award-winning author but her favorite title is Mimi to her three granddaughters and one on the way.
