Combining his expertise in book restoration and his deep knowledge of classic literature, Jonathan embarked on a mission to source and restore rare and exquisite literary gems. He tirelessly scoured antiquarian bookshops, auction houses, and private collections to uncover hidden treasures that had been forgotten over time.

The Night Of The New Moon Vintage Classics was born out of this dedication and showcases the magnificent craftsmanship of these literary works, ensuring their preservation for generations to come.

The Exquisite Craftsmanship Behind The Night Of The New Moon Vintage Classics

Each book in The Night Of The New Moon collection is a testament to the craftsmanship and attention to detail that went into its creation. From the delicate marbling on the endpapers to the embossed cover designs, every element exudes a sense of elegance and sophistication.

The pages, painstakingly hand-sewn and made from high-quality archival paper, are crafted to endure the test of time. The gold leaf accents and ornate typography add a touch of regality, transporting readers to a time when books were cherished objects, passed down through generations.

Jonathan Evergreen collaborates with a team of skilled artisans who employ traditional bookbinding techniques, ensuring that each volume is a work of art in its own right. The dedication to preserving the authenticity and historical significance of these books is evident in every aspect of their presentation.
