It's the dawn of a new millennium. Organized government no longer exists and business corporations run the country. The conflict between humans and mutants exists with a war on the horizon. Allan Williams, a mutant politician, is trying to bring the conflict to an end all while juggling a wife and newborn son, Quincy Williams. When the war breaks out, the death of Allan and his wife leaves his mission incomplete and his son all alone until a guardian named Sifu steps in, and teaches Quincy about the world he's living in.

Quincy encounters many emotional rollercoasters while navigating this new world, and as he becomes older, he starts to wonder how can this conflict between both species be resolved? A major obstacle in his way comes in the form of a man named Damien Harrison who will stop at nothing to exterminate the mutant species off the face of the earth. Can Quincy find a way to save his beloved species from genocide/extinction?
