"Short Corners, Long Memories" is the definitive history of East Antrim Hockey Club. Based in County Antrim and formed in October 1902, the Club has had a colourful history - albeit one which has not netted the heftiest of trophy hauls. The book provides a stunning array of photographic evidence to support the text - photographs from every decade including a rare 1903 Club photo. The authors have also included anecdotal evidence from some of their more comical past players. And, of course, for the statistically minded, there is the usual lists of championship winning teams, international players and Club figures of significant importance. All in all, a book that will not only appeal to those with a close connection with the Club, but also to the wider hockey fraternity.
