The Enchanting Neighborhoods

Baltimore is a city of diverse neighborhoods, each with its own distinct character and charm. Take a stroll through Fells Point, with its cobblestone streets, historic buildings, and vibrant waterfront. This charming neighborhood offers a variety of boutique shops, restaurants, and cozy pubs, making it the perfect place to spend an afternoon.

Head over to Mount Vernon, a neighborhood known for its elegant architecture and thriving arts scene. The historic Mount Vernon Place, with its stunning Washington Monument, is a must-see. Art enthusiasts can explore the renowned Walters Art Museum and Maryland Historical Society located in the area.

Finding peace and tranquility is easy in the picturesque neighborhood of Roland Park. With its tree-lined streets, elegant homes, and beautiful parks, this area offers a serene escape from the hustle and bustle of city life. Take a leisurely stroll through the neighborhood and discover its hidden treasures.

A Culinary Delight

Baltimore's dining scene is a gastronomic adventure waiting to be explored. From renowned seafood restaurants to unique eateries, the city offers a wide array of culinary delights.

For a true taste of Baltimore, one must indulge in Maryland's famous blue crabs. Voted the best crab cakes in town, Faidley Seafood in Lexington Market is a must-visit. Crack open a steamed crab, savor the succulent meat, and experience the flavors of the Chesapeake Bay.

Those with a sweet tooth should not miss out on the delicate and delectable desserts at Patisserie Poupon. This charming French bakery offers a wide selection of pastries, cakes, and macarons that will transport you to the streets of Paris.

Cultural Gems

Art and culture thrive in Baltimore, and the city is home to numerous museums and cultural institutions that showcase its rich heritage.

Visit the Baltimore Museum of Art, which houses an extensive collection of paintings, sculptures, and decorative arts. From European masterpieces to contemporary works by local artists, this museum has it all.

The American Visionary Art Museum is another must-see attraction. Showcasing works created by self-taught artists from across the country, this museum embraces the unconventional and celebrates the power of creativity.

Embracing Nature

For those seeking a breath of fresh air and natural beauty, Baltimore has several parks and gardens to explore. The enchanting Ladew Topiary Gardens is a hidden gem filled with stunning topiary sculptures, beautifully manicured gardens, and peaceful walking trails.

Another outdoor oasis is Druid Hill Park, one of the oldest landscaped public parks in America. Take a leisurely bike ride, have a picnic by the lake, or enjoy a paddleboat ride in this expansive green space.

A Vibrant Nightlife

As the sun sets, Baltimore comes alive with its vibrant nightlife scene. From rooftop bars with breathtaking views to lively music venues, there is no shortage of entertainment options.

Head over to The Brewer's Art, a historic brewpub housed in a grand townhouse, and sample their award-winning beers in a unique and inviting atmosphere. The lively atmosphere and extensive beer selection make it a favorite among locals and visitors alike.

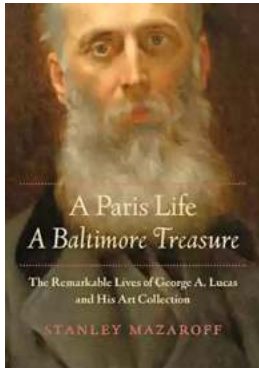

If live music is more your style, the Ottobar is the place to be. This popular music venue showcases both local and national bands, ensuring you'll have a memorable night filled with great tunes.

The Paris Life Baltimore Treasure Awaits

While Paris captivates the hearts of many, Baltimore has its own distinct charm that makes living here a treasure. From its enchanting neighborhoods to its culinary delights, cultural gems, and vibrant nightlife, Charm City offers a diverse and thrilling experience.

So, embrace the Paris Life Baltimore Treasure and uncover the hidden gems that await. You'll find that life in Baltimore is an adventure that rivals any romantic escape to the City of Love.

“[An] elegantly written account of all facets of the life and career of George A. Lucas . . . of Belle Époque Paris and Gilded Age America.” —Inge Reist, Director Emeritus of The Frick Collection’s Center for the History of Collecting

In 1857, young Baltimorean George A. Lucas arrived in Paris, where he established an extensive personal network of celebrated artists and art dealers, becoming the quintessential French connection for American collectors. The most remarkable thing about Lucas was not the art that he acquired for his clients but the massive collection of 18,000 paintings, drawings, sculptures, and etchings, as well as 1,500 books, journals, and other sources about French artists, that he acquired for himself. Paintings by Cabanel, Corot, and Daubigny, prints by Whistler, Manet, and Cassatt, and portfolios of information about hundreds of French artists filled his apartment and spilled into the adjacent flat of his mistress.

Based primarily on Lucas's notes and diaries, as well as thousands of other archival documents, A Paris Life, A Baltimore Treasure is a richly illustrated portrayal of Lucas's fascinating life as an agent, connoisseur, and collector of French mid-nineteenth-century art. And, as revealed in the book, following Lucas's death, his enormous collection continued to have a vibrant life of its own, when—in 1990—Baltimore's Maryland Institute proposed to auction or otherwise sell the collection. It rose from obscurity, reached new glory as an irreplaceable cultural treasure, and became the subject of an epic battle fought in and out of court that captivated public attention and enflamed the passions of art lovers and museum officials across the nation.

“Mazaroff has thoughtfully recreated the legacy of one of America's best documented late-nineteenth-century French art collections.” —Doreen Bolger, Director Emeritus, The Baltimore Museum of Art
