Introducing the Winter Holiday Card Counted Embroidery Design Noelle Frances Designs 107 - a stunning and intricate design that will bring joy and warmth to your winter holidays.

The Beauty of Counted Embroidery

Counted embroidery is a form of stitching where the design is created by counting the stitches on the fabric. It requires precision and attention to detail, making it a great choice for those who enjoy intricate and challenging projects. The Winter Holiday Card Counted Embroidery Design by Noelle Frances Designs is a prime example of the beauty and elegance that can be achieved through this technique.

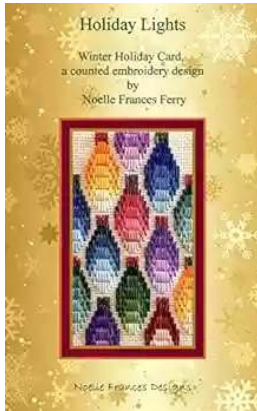

With its delicate snowflakes, charming reindeer, and festive colors, this embroidery design captures the essence of winter holiday celebrations. Whether you choose to stitch it on a card, frame it as a wall decoration, or use it as a centerpiece for a holiday table setting, it is sure to be a conversation starter and a cherished keepsake for years to come.

How to Get Started

If you're excited to get started on your own Winter Holiday Card Counted Embroidery Design, here's how you can do it:

1. First, make sure you have all the necessary materials. You'll need embroidery floss in various colors, an embroidery hoop, fabric, needles, and scissors. You can find all these supplies at your local craft store or online.

2. Once you have your materials ready, download the Winter Holiday Card Counted Embroidery Design Noelle Frances Designs 107 pattern from the Noelle Frances Designs website. Print it out and gather your floss colors accordingly.
3. Prepare your fabric by securing it tightly in the embroidery hoop. This will ensure that your stitches are even and the design comes out beautifully.
4. Start stitching! Follow the pattern and count each stitch carefully to create the desired design. Take your time, and don't worry if it takes a while to complete. Embroidery is a labor of love, and the end result will be worth it.
5. Once you're done stitching, remove the fabric from the hoop and give it a gentle press with a warm iron to remove any creases.
6. You can now proudly display your Winter Holiday Card Counted Embroidery Design. Frame it, turn it into a holiday card, or create a unique ornament for your Christmas tree. The possibilities are endless!

Benefits of Counted Embroidery

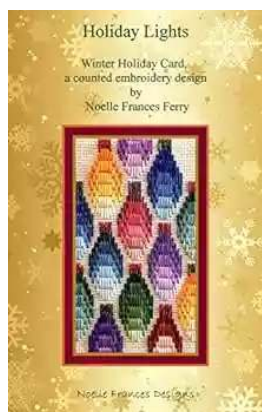

Embroidery is not only a creative and enjoyable pastime, but it also offers numerous benefits for your mental health and well-being. Counted embroidery, in particular, can have a calming effect on the mind, helping you relax and unwind from the stressors of daily life.

By focusing on the intricate stitches and counting, you enter a state of flow where time seems to stand still. This meditative practice can reduce anxiety and promote mindfulness, allowing you to find solace and tranquility amidst the chaos.

Winter is the perfect time to explore new artistic endeavors, and counted embroidery is a wonderful choice for those seeking a creative outlet. The Winter

The Holiday Lights pattern is sized for inserted into a window card. The overall count for the worked area of the design is 45 by 78. This design is worked in straight stitches on 14 count Aida fabric.

This 10 plus page, full color booklet, provides discussion of the charts accompanied by photos of the worked design.

Approximately 3 by 5 ½ -inches when worked on 14-count Aida fabric. This design was created to fit within the (3 by 5-inch) window area of a 5 by 7-inch trifold card or secured within the window area of a 5 by 7-inch mat board (cardstock). The cardstock I used has a white back for writing a seasonal or personal message, if being given as a gift.

List of the color threads that I used is provided at the end of Section 2 – Working the Pattern.

My blog, noellefrancesdesigns.com, provides expanded discussion and photos for finishing your worked designs.
