Trivia 1: The First Coach

Did you know that the first head coach of the New Orleans Pelicans was Paul Silas? Silas served as the team's head coach during the 2002-2003 season, which marked the Pelicans' inaugural year. Prior to joining the Pelicans, Silas had an impressive NBA career as a player, winning three championships with the Boston Celtics.

Trivia 2: MVPs in the Making

The New Orleans Pelicans have had their fair share of players who have achieved great success in the NBA. One notable name is Chris Paul, who won the NBA Rookie of the Year award in 2006 and later became an eight-time NBA All-Star. Paul's exceptional playmaking skills and leadership qualities made him a vital asset for the Pelicans during his time with the team.

Another star player who donned the Pelicans' uniform is Anthony Davis. Davis, a four-time NBA All-Star and one-time NBA All-Star Game MVP, made a significant impact during his tenure with the team. Known for his versatility, shot-blocking prowess, and ability to dominate both ends of the court, Davis's contributions to the Pelicans' success cannot be overstated.

Trivia 3: Record-Breaking Performances

The New Orleans Pelicans have witnessed numerous record-breaking performances throughout their history. One such event occurred on November 8, 2014, when Anthony Davis had a remarkable game against the Charlotte Hornets. Davis scored a franchise-record 43 points, making 17 of his 23 field goal attempts and 8 of his 9 free throw attempts.

Not only did Davis set a franchise record for the most points in a game, but he also set a NBA record for the most points in a season-opener by a player making his debut with a new team. This incredible performance showcased Davis's immense talent and foreshadowed the outstanding achievements he would go on to accomplish.

Trivia 4: Community Engagement

The New Orleans Pelicans are not just focused on basketball but are deeply committed to making a positive impact within their community. The team's community engagement programs have earned them recognition and love from the local community.

One such program is the Pelicans' "Season of Giving" initiative, where players and staff participate in various charitable events during the holiday season. The team also organizes youth basketball camps, focusing on skill development and fostering a love for the game among young enthusiasts.

Trivia 5: Rivalries and Playoff Runs

Over the years, the New Orleans Pelicans have established notable rivalries with teams like the San Antonio Spurs and the Golden State Warriors. These matchups have often produced intense and compelling basketball, showcasing the Pelicans' competitive spirit.

Additionally, the Pelicans have enjoyed several playoff runs, with one of the most memorable occurring during the 2017-2018 season. Led by the duo of Anthony Davis and Jrue Holiday, the Pelicans swept the Portland Trail Blazers in the first round of the playoffs, entering the second round for the first time in a decade. It was a historic moment for the franchise and a testament to the team's resilience and determination.

Trivia 6: Home Sweet Home

The New Orleans Pelicans play their home games at the Smoothie King Center, an arena known for its enthusiastic atmosphere and strong fan support. The center has hosted numerous memorable games and events, including NBA All-Star Weekend in 2008 and the NCAA Men's Final Four in 2022.

Trivia 7: The Unforgettable Season

The 2019-2020 NBA season will forever be remembered as a unique and challenging one due to the global pandemic. Despite the difficulties, the New Orleans Pelicans showed resilience and adaptability throughout the season, as they navigated the uncertainties and resumed playing in the NBA bubble. The team displayed their commitment to the game, their fans, and the city of New Orleans.
