The first book, "Secrets of the Manor House," introduces us to the enigmatic Sinclair brothers. Born with the curse of immortality, they roam the town, their secrets hidden from the world. As the secrets unravel and the past collides with the present, the Sinclair brothers find themselves in a race against time to protect their loved ones and unravel the truth that has haunted them for centuries.

In the second book, "Whispers of the Shadows," we delve deeper into the web of secrets that enclose the Sinclair family. Haunted by a mysterious creature that shadows their every move, they must confront their darkest fears to uncover the truth. What they discover will shake the very foundation of their existence, forcing them to make impossible choices.

The third installment, "Ties That Bind," takes us on a heart-pounding journey alongside the Sinclair brothers as they battle against a powerful ancient organization determined to exploit their secret for their own gain. With their lives hanging in the balance and their bonds of blood tested, the Sinclairs must find strength within each other to overcome the seemingly insurmountable odds.

In the final book, "Blood Moon Rising," the Sinclairs face their most formidable enemy yet. As a blood moon looms over Wexford, an ancient curse awakens, threatening to consume everything in its path. Racing against time, the brothers must unravel the secrets of their lineage and harness their own hidden powers to save not only themselves but also the town that has become their home.
